ON THE ROAD AGAIN

Back for its second year, the OIC BookyMobile® has rested over the winter months and is now ready to get back on the road again. The OIC BookyMobile® is a free library on wheels. The BookyMobile® was funded by the Verizon Foundation, the Erbe Trust and the Pennsylvania Department of Education. The BookyMobile® travels throughout the area to deliver free books and educational materials to children and adults.

This year we will be working closely with the Dauphin County Library System to encourage new readers and avid readers to get library cards and use the many resources and programs at their local libraries.

On board, the BookyMobile® has a collection of books for children, teens and adults. Everything is free and nothing has to be returned.

The BookyMobile® drives up to your school, day care, senior center, housing development, place of business, neighborhood, community event or church and the BookyMobile® helps welcome you onboard and assist you as you select your free reading materials. Last year we distributed 1,000s of free books.

Right now we are getting our travel schedule together for the spring and summer. If you would like the BookyMobile® to visit you, now is the time to send us the dates for your special events. We'll put you on the calendar and come visit you.

Contact Jeffrey Woodyard at 238-7318 for more information.

WE NEED BOOKS, BOOKS AND MORE BOOKS

If you have new or gently used books that you would like to donate to the BookyMobile® for redistribution, please let us know. We are always looking for children's books as well as novels for adults. You can drop your books off at 500 Maclay Street in Harrisburg. Or you can call Booky Bee at 238-7318. He'll be glad to send someone around to pick up your book donations.
