n What do we do at the Central Pennsylvania Literacy Council?

We provide Individualized Instruction for adults who have busy schedules and think they don't have the time to learn because they work nights, weekends, or double shifts. We also support adults who may learn better in small groups or with a tutor. At the Literacy Council, we can schedule your instruction when you are ready to learn.

"This program gives me the chance I need to improve my skills . . ."

n How do we do it?

Everyone learns in different ways and has different interests. At the Literacy Council we develop Individualized Instruction by finding out what you want to learn and how you learn best. We schedule your learning time when you are available.

n What are the goals of the Individualized Instruction program?

Our goals are simple:

- to give busy adults a chance to learn when they are able;
- to provide instruction at a person's own pace;
- to help busy adults improve their reading, math, spelling, writing, or reading comprehension skills; and
- to help busy adults improve their English reading, writing, and listening skills.

n Who is eligible for Individualized Instruction with the Literacy Council?

Individualized Instruction is open to adults who are:

- eligible for adult education services (literacy, ESL, ABE, GED, Adult Diploma);
- seeking employment; and
- able to set long-term goals and work toward them one step at a time.

n When and where do classes meet?

The Literacy Council offers Individualized Instruction seven days a week in our main office at 225 Hummel Avenue (rear) in Lemoyne. Individualized Instruction is available only by appointment.

n How do I get started?

Begin by asking yourself, "Can I dedicate one hour in the next three days to my educational goals?"
